

Exploring the characters of Jarle Adventure

Yes, it actually looks like this.

Jarle Carbrajo

The main hero. He is a renowned jazz musician, with proficiency in playing the sax. He hears of a disturbing occurrence happening during one of his shows, and hears you'll get a sweet princess out of it! So how could he not?

Mr. Q

Mr. Q is a man who shrouds himself in mystery. He's apparently a good friend of Jarle, as he is part of his jazz band, "The Jarle Josemites". He is his drummer.

He decides to tag alongside Jarle on this nonsensical journey for seemingly no reason.

The Man in the Box

A long time favorite fan of Jarle and his crew. Not much is known about him though.

Whenever he is encountered, he will provide Jarle and Mr. Q with explosives to help them defeat enemies without ruining their fit.

Starman

Get it?

Sad Box Boy

While not exactly a character, Sad Box Boy appears everytime you relinquish a block of its contents. He represents the hollow shell of the container and it's longing to hold an item.

Discheveld Flag

He's here to remind you that, even though you may have won, there are many out there who don't.

Heisengoom

He is the one who stomps.

BOY

World renowned gamer and pop music
enjoyer. You can slide him away once he is staggered.

Flying BOY

BOY but he has discovered the power of flight. The red one will be flying in lines, while the green ones will be bouncing across the screen.

A disgusting fusion between Mimi and MZD found inside pipes.

... but you knew that already, didn't you?

Bargo Skraldo

The third and final member of Jarle's crew. He is the pianist and vocalist. He has a reputation for being an odd fellow.

He gets taken again 6 more times btw.

Anchor Ghost

Mysterious, enigmatic ghost that passed away many decades ago. Haunts the waters with an anchor he had found. He will attempt to loosen his visibility and escape you when you get close, but somehow he pulls off an extra hit everytime.

Suketoudara
LET'S DANCING!!!!1!

Spear Guy

Spear Guy is a Shy Guy with a spear.
He's kind of a dick.

If you wait long enough, he'll surprise
you.

Dr. Robotnik

Hovers around in a stupid looking spaceship and throws red balls at you. Wonder what they do.

Motobugs

Said read balls from earlier apparently become Robotniks finest invention: the deadly Motobug.

...

... seriously?

Jacks

Some small li'l pumpkin lads that wander about. Apparently immune to explosives.

Just like BOY, they can be kicked around once staggered, but since they're usually in smaller spaces, it's not advised to do it so often.

Twitch Smile

:)

Brøwyer

The main villain of this story. Was expecting someone else to save the girl, but instead got Jarle and his crew.

He does not know what to think of it. In fact he's pretty oblivious about Jarles' ambitions.

Princess Fruit

The damsel in distress. She was expecting someone else, and when she saw Jarle and his crew, she wasn't too ecstatic. She told them to leave immediately. Heartbroken, they obliged, and she just sort of waltzed out of the castle on her own accord.
