Walkthrough

You start the game with Jef in a small town. Go to your home in the top left, where you will get some money. The same thing in the house on the top right side. You need to find the other team members who are hidden in houses, and then rent the Jeep for $500 and go to the next area.

Jungle area. You have to visit every house to get clues and buy a bazooka. You can get it in a house on the right side for $2250. After you have obtained it, you can start the quest for the 5 dolls, one in each of the following 5 areas which you can explore in no particular order.

Canyon area. Walk through the opening that leads to it. Destroy a rock with the bazooka and walk through the canyon. You will find a statue near the waterfall. Destroy it with the bazooka and enter to fight the Boss.

Base area. Just enter each building until you get the flamethrower. As soon as you get it, select it and go to the flower fields to burn all the poppy. Then you should find a hole. Choose your fighter and enter it to fight the Boss.

Forest area. Look for the six large statues and put them on the holes. The only problem you will have is that there are trees in your way. However, you can blow up a few with your bazooka. With this done, the two statues in front of a house on the top right leave you a passage. Take it and blow up some trees. Enter the house to fight the Boss.

Temple area. Here you have to find five red stoles. First enter the three houses and then blow up the columns with the Bazooka. Go upstairs and enter the Great Temple to kill the Boss.

Field area. After buying the letter of introduction for 800 dollars in the jungle, make sure you have $12000 and go to this area. The person in the house before the bridge will let you pass through with this letter. Go to the large house above the bridge. There you will see a girl with green hair. She will join you for shopping. After meeting the pretty brunette and showing her the five gifts, you find yourself alone. Now go back to the large house above the bridge to fight the Boss.

After having defeated it, go to the Final Temple at the far right end of the jungle.
